CORNERSTONE HOMES OFFERING MARCH MADNESS PROMOTION THROUGH MARCH 31

JACKSONVILLE, Florida – CornerStone Homes wants to provide one lucky winner with a free 42” flat screen television. For a limited time, the Jacksonville area homebuilder is offering a chance to win a 42” flat screen television fully installed in time for the NCAA Championship game.

“I love NCAA basketball,” said CornerStone Homes Managing Partner Mark Downing. “We wanted to provide a fun way of connecting with the community and getting them involved during March Madness. For those who guess the Final Four correctly they win an additional ten entries into the drawing!”

This limited-time March Madness promotion also offers homebuyers, who contract to build any new CornerStone home through Wednesday, March 31, additional feature and structural upgrades such as granite countertops in the kitchen, an included 10' bay window in the room of their choice, an impactful step-ceiling treatment and GE stainless steel appliances.

CornerStone Homes builds one-of-a-kind homes with outstanding quality craftsmanship and incomparable customer service in Jacksonville, St. Augustine, and Orange Park area communities and on privately owned homesites. The company has received accolades, honors and high ratings for its excellence in homebuilding and customer satisfaction. Personalizing homes is the company's specialty.

In a recent third party survey, nearly 94 percent of the company's customers said they would recommend the homebuilder to family and friends and 1 out of 3 clients had been referred by current CornerStone Homes homeowners.

CornerStone Homes is building in Northeast Florida's finest neighborhoods, including Payasada, Austin Park at Nocatee, Palencia, GroveWood at World Golf Village, Kensington, MuraBella, RiverTown, Hunter Oaks, Doctors Inlet Reserve, Eagle Harbor, Eagle Landing and Rolling Hills. In addition, the company builds on privately owned homesites from $61 per square-foot.
